

CARL W. LISBERGER

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

---

Carl W. Lisberger practices in the area of land use law. He has experience assisting with the approvals process for commercial, residential, mixed-use, and institutional development projects. He also has experience assisting with rent control and historic preservation matters.

Lisberger was born and raised in Santa Monica and attended Santa Monica public schools.

Prior to joining HLKK law, Lisberger gained work experience as a law clerk for the Land Use division of the Los Angeles City Attorney's Office. While in law school, Lisberger participated in the Emmett Environmental Law and Policy Clinic, the Trial Advocacy Workshop and served as supervising student attorney at the Harvard Prison Legal Assistance Project.

EDUCATION

---

Harvard Law School, J.D.

University of Pittsburgh, B.A., History, Philosophy, History & Philosophy of Science, summa cum laude