

KENNETH L. KUTCHER

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Kenneth L. Kutcher practices in the areas of real estate, land use, administrative law and land use litigation. He has appeared before a wide variety of public agencies, including planning commissions, city councils, board of supervisors, architectural review boards, landmarks/heritage commissions, zoning administrators, the California Coastal Commission, the Alcoholic Beverage Control Department, the Bureau of Real Estate, and various state and federal courts.

Prior to starting in private practice, Kutcher served as an intern to the Honorable Winslow Christian in the California Court of Appeal, First Appellate District. In addition, he was appointed to the Order of the Coif for his scholastic achievement in law school.

Kutcher has served as a board member for the Santa Monica Chamber of Commerce and was co-chair of the Chamber's Land Use Committee.

He is a former board member of Community Health Councils, Upward Bound House, and various other community organizations.

In addition to his professional and volunteer activities in Santa Monica, Kutcher is also civically active in Culver City, where he resides.

EDUCATION

University of California, Los Angeles, J.D. (1983)

University of Southern California, B.A., Economics, magna cum laude (1980)