

KEVIN V. KOZAL

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Kevin V. Kozal specializes in real estate transactions and land use law. Kozal's practice includes representing clients before various administrative agencies, including city councils and planning commissions, and in real estate transactional matters.

During law school, Kozal served as staff member and publication editor for USC's Major Tax Planning and The Computer Law Journal.

Kozal is a past president and current board member of Many Mansions, a nonprofit housing provider in Thousand Oaks. He has served as vice president of finance and as a member of the board of directors for Senior Health and Peer Counseling (now WISE and Healthy Aging). He has also served as the chairperson of the Thousand Oaks/Westlake Village Regional Chamber of Commerce's Government Relations and Land Use Committee and as a member of the Malibu Chamber of Commerce's General Plan Task Force. In addition, he volunteers with the Loaves & Fishes program at Saint Jude's Catholic Community in Westlake Village

EDUCATION

University of Southern California, J.D.

University of Southern California, M.B.T.

University of Santa Clara, B.A., Accounting, cum laude